IX.   Debriefing

The following questions are designed to conclude the testing session and are given from the moderator to the tester.

What do you think of your first experience with the site?	Looked professional
What was the most useful aspects of the site?	I liked the layout
What aspects of the site were ineffective?	The advertisement at the top was too big, takes up too much room
What improvements do you suggest for the site?	Being able to log out